The Sun Does Not Set

A prognostication, prediction, a prophecy, or a protocol, a plan; whatever you prefer to call it (all mean the very same thing) in the Law and the Prophets says something like this: . . . in That Day (beginning of the millennium?), the Sun will not Set. The sun will not set on God's Kingdom. On May 21, 1975, I, Charles Kenneth Johnson, with my Dear Wife Marjory, held a press conference at the Greater Los Angeles Press Club, located in Hollywood. I announced, with my Helpmate at my side, THIS DAY THE SUN DOES NOT SET. . . . The Ten Commandments is the Supreme Law of the Land and the World. (Note: Joshua-Jesus mission or work was to Establish and make respectable the law, the "spirit or intent the purpose" of the Ten Commandments, as well as the Letter, along with other inspired logical reasonable laws of Physics, such as Law against Gays, also called Sodomy.) This for the Jews and Christians, also called Juda and Israel. Jeremiah 31: 28-33.

The Revelation of the cause of sunrise and sunset

Although the sun is at all times above the earth's surface, it appears in the morning to ascend from the north-east to the noon-day position, and thence to descend and disappear, or set, in the north-west. This phenomenon arises from the operation of a simple and everywhere visible law of perspective. A flock of birds, when passing over a flat or marshy country, always appears to descend as it recedes; and if the flock is extensive, the first bird appears lower or nearer the horizon than the last, although they are at the same actual altitude above the earth immediately beneath them. When a balloon sails away from an observer, without increasing or decreasing its altitude, it appears to gradually approach the horizon. In a long row of lamps, the second — supposing the observer to stand at the beginning of the series — will appear lower than the first; the third lower than the second; and so on to the end of the row; the farthest away always appearing the lowest, although each one has the same altitude; and if such a straight line of lamps could be continued far enough, the lights would at length descend, apparently, to the horizon, or to a level with the eye of the observer, as shown in the following diagram, fig. 63.

CHARLES K. JOHNSON and his wife, Marjory, outside their home in Lancaster. —AP Laserphoto

Let A, B, represent the altitude throughout of a long row of lamps, standing on the horizontal ground E, D; and C, H, the line of sight of an observer at C. The ordinary principles of perspective will cause an apparent rising of the ground E, D, to the eye-line C, H, meeting it at H; and an apparent descent of each subsequent lamp, from A, to H, towards the same eye-line, also meeting at H. The point H, is the horizon, although it has really the altitude D, B will disappear.

Bearing in mind the above phenomena it will easily be seen how the sun, although always above and parallel to the earth's surface, must appear to ascend from the morning horizon to the noonday or meridian position; and thence to descend to the evening horizon.

In the diagram, fig. 64, let the line E, D, represent the surface of the earth; H, H, the morning and evening horizon; and A, S, B, a portion of the true path of the sun. An observer at O, looking to the east, will first see the sun in the morning, not at A, its true position, but at its apparent position, H, just emerging from the "vanishing point" or the morning horizon. At nine o'clock, the sun will have the apparent position, I, gradually appearing to ascend the line H, I, S; the point S, being the meridian or noonday position. From S, the sun will be seen to gradually descend the line S, 2, H, until he reaches the horizon, H, and entering the "vanishing point," disappears, to an observer in England, in the west, beyond the continent of North America, as in the morning he is seen to rise from the direction of Northern Asia. An excellent illustration of this "rising" and "setting" of the sun may be seen in a long tunnel, as shown in diagram, fig. 65. The top of the tunnel, 1, 2, and the bottom, 3, 4, although really equi-distant throughout the whole length, would, to an observer in the centre, C, appear to approach each other, and converge at the points, H, H; and a lamp, or light of any kind, brought in, and carried along the top, close to the upper surface, 1, 2, would, when really going along the line, 1, S, 2, appear to ascend the inclined plane H, S, to the centre, S, and after passing the centre, to descend the plane S, H; and if the tunnel were sufficiently long, the phenomena of sunrise and of sunset would be perfectly imitated.

A very striking illustration of the convergence of the top and bottom, as well as the sides, of a long tunnel, has been observed in that of Mont Cenis. M. de Porville, when in the centre of the tunnel, noticed that the entrance had apparently become so small that the daylight beyond it seemed like a bright star. "Before us, at an apparently prodigious distance, we beheld a small star at the entrance of the gallery. Its vivid light contrasted strangely with the red glare of the lamps. Its brightness increased as the horses dashed on the way. In a short time its proportions were more clearly defined, and its volume increased. The illusion was quickly dispelled as we got over some kilometres. This soft white light is the extremity of the gallery."

We have seen that "sunrise" and "sunset" are phenomena dependent entirely upon the fact that horizontal lines, parallel to each other, appear to approach or converge in the distance. The surface of the earth being horizontal, and the line of sight of the observer and the sun's path being over and parallel with it, the rising and setting of the moving sun over the immovable earth are simply phenomena arising necessarily from the laws of perspective.

Members and Readers, THIS DAY the New Heavens and New Earth (the new Concept, since nothing real changes) are being . . . REVEALED. . . to You.

Gravitation or Hocus Pocus

The "law of gravitation" is said by the advocates of the Newtonian system of astronomy, to be the greatest discovery of science, and the foundation of the whole of modern astronomy. If, therefore, it can be shown that gravitation is a pure assumption, and an imagination of the mind only, that it has no existence outside of the brains of its expounders and advocates, the whole of the hypotheses of this modern so-called science fall to the ground as flat as the surface of the ocean, and this "most exact of all the sciences," this wonderful "feat of the intellect" becomes at once the most ridiculous superstition and the most gigantic imposture to which ignorance and credulity could ever be exposed.

In the "Story of the Heavens," by Sir R. Ball, it is stated on page 82: "The law of gravitation, THE GREATEST DISCOVERY that science has yet witnessed."

"The law of gravitation WHICH UNDERLIES THE WHOLE OF ASTRONOMY."

Page 101: "The law of gravitation announces that every body in the universe attracts every other body with a force which varies inversely with the square of the distance."

"Popular Science Recreations," by G. Tissandier, pages 486 and 487, contains the following: "Gravitation is the force which keeps the planets in their orbits."

"Every object in the world tends to attract every other object in proportion to the quantity of matter of which each consists."

Professor W. B. Carpenter, in his work "Nature and Man," says: "The laws of light and gravitation," wrote Mr. Atkinson to Harriet Martineau, 30 years ago, 'extend over the universe, and explain whole classes of phenomena,' and this explanation, according to the same writer, is all-sufficient, 'Philosophy finding no God in nature, NOR SEEING THE WANT OF ANY.'"

C. Vernon Boys, F.R.S., A.R.S.M., M.R.L., in his paper, "The Newtonian Constant of Gravitation," says: "G, represents that mighty principle under the influence of which every star, planet and satellite in the universe pursues its allotted course. Unlike any other known physical influence, it is independent of medium, it knows no refraction, it cannot cast a shadow. It is a mysterious power which NO MAN CAN EXPLAIN, OF ITS PROPAGATION THROUGH SPACE, ALL MEN ARE IGNORANT. . . . I cannot contemplate this mystery, at which we ignorantly wonder, without thinking of the altar on Mars' hill. When will a St. Paul arise able to declare it unto us? Or is gravitation, like life, a mystery that can never be solved?" — Proceedings of the Royal Institution of Great Britain.

Or in other words. This Highest Aurthery of Science confesses, "Gravity" the glue of the entire spinning ball jibberish, is Entirely a religious Dogma, can Only be believed on "blind faith" since it is entirely unreasonable, unproved, and unprovable and simply "absurd." (Keep in mind the 10 Commandments we hold for is not "religious" not unreasonable but common sense natural law).

Professor W. B. Carpenter, in a paper "Nature and Law," published in the "Modern Review" says: "The first of the great achievements of Newton in relation to our present subject, was a piece of purely Geometrical reasoning. ASSUMING two forces to act on a body, of which one should be capable of imparting to it uniform motion in a straight line, whilst the other should attract it towards a fixed point in accordance with Galileo's law of gravity, he demonstrated that the path of the body would be deflected into a curve. . . . The idea of continuous onward motion in a straight line, as the result of an original impulsive force not antagonized or affected by any other — formulaised by Newton as his first 'law of motion' — is not borne out by any acquired experience, and does not seem likely to be ever thus verified. For in no experiment we have it in our power to make, can we entirely eliminate the antagonizing effects of friction and atmospheric resistance; and thus all movement that is subject to this retardation, and is not sustained by any fresh action of the impelling force, must come to an end. Hence the conviction commonly entertained that Newton's first 'law' of motion must be true, cannot be philosophically admitted to be anything more than a probability. . . . WE HAVE NO PROOF, AND IN THE NATURE OF THINGS CAN NEVER GET ONE, OF THE ASSUMPTION OF THE ATTRACTIVE FORCE EXERTED BY THE EARTH, OR BY ANY OF THE BODIES OF THE SOLAR SYSTEM, UPON BODIES AT A DISTANCE. Newton himself strongly felt that the impossibility of rationally accounting for action at a distance through an intervening vacuum, was the weak point of HIS system. All that we can be said to know is that which we learn from our own experience. Now, in regard to the Sun's attraction for the Earth and Planets, WE HAVE NO CERTAIN EXPERIENCE AT ALL. Unless we could be transported to his surface, we have no means of experimentally comparing Solar gravity with Terrestrial gravity; and if we could ascertain this, we should be no nearer the determination of his attraction for bodies at a distance. THE DOCTRINE OF UNIVERSAL GRAVITATION THEN, IS A PURE ASSUMPTION."

Which way is up?

"In ascending a hill we experience a hard struggle, and feel more fatigued than when walking on level ground. Why is this? The Newtonian attributes this to the attraction of gravitation of the earth, against the pull of which we have to contend; but if he would be consistent with his theory that the attraction of gravitation diminishes inversely as the square of the distance from the center of the earth, we ought, in defiance of experience, to feel it to be less laborious to ascend a hill than to promenade the same distance on level ground, because as we ascend we recede from the center of the earth; therefore the force of gravitation ought to diminish in a corresponding degree. The Newtonian can only get over this difficulty by a species of scientific quibbling. According to the definition of weight I have given, the solution of the problem is perfectly simple. In ascending a hill, a man comes in contact with the law that the natural tendency of any body is to seek the easiest and shortest route to its level of stability. He chooses the very reverse, and must therefore endure the consequences of acting in opposition to this law. At every step he has to lift his own weight, and the higher he mounts the more he feels the influence of the law which he defies. His easiest and more direct course to obey the law of weight is to remain where he is; the next is to descend to a lower level.

"The attraction of gravitation is said to be stronger at the surface of the earth than at a distance from it. Is it so? If I spring upwards perpendicularly I cannot with all my might ascend more than four feet from the ground; but if I jump in a curve with a low trajectory, keeping my highest elevation about three feet, I might clear at a bound a space above the earth of about eighteen feet; so that practically I can overcome the so-called force (pull) at the distance of four feet, in the proportion of 18 to 4, being the very reverse of what I ought to be able to do according to the Newtonian hypotheses.

"Again, take the case of a shot propelled from a cannon. By the force of the explosion and the influence of the reputed action of gravitation, the shot forms a parabolic curve, and finally falls to the earth. Here we may ask, why — if the forces are the same, viz., direct impulse and gravitation — does not the shot form an orbit like that of a planet and revolve round the earth? The Newtonian may reply, because the impulse which propelled the shot is temporary and the impulse which propelled the planet is permanent. Precisely so: but why is the impulse permanent in the case of the planet revolving round the sun? What is the cause of this permanence?

Goodbye Mr. Newton...

"We are asked by the Newtonian to believe that the action of gravitation, which we can easily overcome by the slightest exercise of volition in raising a hand or a foot, is so overwhelmingly violent when we lose our balance endfall a distance of a few feet, that this force, which is imperceptible under usual conditions, may, under extraordinary circumstances, cause the fracture of every limb we possess? Common sense must reject this interpretation. Gravitation does not furnish a satisfactory definition of weight already given does, for a body seeking in the readiest manner its level of stability would produce precisely the results experienced. If the influence which kept us securely attached to this earth were identical with that which is powerful enough to disturb a distant planet in its orbit, we should be more immediately conscious of its masterful presence and potency; whereas this influence is so impotent in the very spot where it is supposed to be most dominant that we find an insurmountable difficulty in accepting the idea of its existence. Fortunately for our faculty of locomotion, the Newtonian hypothesis may be rejected as a snare and a delusion.

"It is quite amusing to watch Newtonians and Darwinians floundering about in their attempts to expound the mysteries of creation. Their theories are as ridiculous as the fashion which once prevailed for Della-Cruscan poetry, and they ought to be treated with equal severity.

"It seems quite possible that during the last three hundred years we have been living in a sort of scientific fool's paradise, and that universal gravitation is a gigantic Newtonian mare's nest.

"As a theoretical scientific guide we must give up Sir Isaac Newton as useless and misleading, and allow his reputation to retire into private life."

The way they were...

I have quoted at length on this important matter, and the evidence here produced, besides very much more in the same direction, for which I have not the space here, shows clearly that THERE IS NO SUCH FORCE AS GRAVITATION IN EXISTENCE ANYWHERE.

One of the world's so-called great thinkers, J. S. Mill, is quoted in Professor Carpenter's "Nature and Man," page 385, as saying: "Although we speak of a man's fall as caused by the slipping of his foot, or the breaking of a rung (as the case may be) the efficient cause IS THE ATTRACTIVE FORCE OF THE EARTH, which the loss of support to the man's foot brings into operation."

If a man is not "deeper" than to believe what this "deep" thinker has left on record in this matter: if he has no more brain power to accept the foregoing statement, I would strongly advise him to cease thinking altogether, and thus save the few brains he has. It is simply astounding that men, who in business matters are sharp enough, are as dull as bricks and as credulous as children when the awe-inspiring subject of gravitation, "that grand masterpiece of astronomy," is the theme. To ask the reason why, or to venture to suggest that the assumptions of the "learned" require some sort of proof to back them up, never seems to strike moderns who believe in this monstrous humbug. A. Gibberne, in "Sun, Moon, and Stars," page 27, says: "If the sun is pulling with such power at the earth and all her sister planets, why do they not fall down upon him?"

A very proper question, truly. And when this question is propounded to astronomers, they cannot give an answer worth recording. They simply do

Canada to have dominion of American continent?

I've said before and say again in the First Nation or World Power (Vatican, etc., etc.) to Officially Declare Earth Flat...10 Commandments the Law of the Land will rule the WORLD!

I have been invited by CBC Canadian Broadcasting, equivalent to CBS, NBC, ABC all rolled into one to appear on a TV show Natonwide to Refute the insane witchcraft of Christian-Science the Spinning Ball Globe Planet hoax! American TV network live in fear and dread of the day I appear on Nationwide TV and that DAY end the present crazed mania cultic dark ages Superstition called the "spinning balls concept of earth and the universe." And forever end the comicstrip science fiction fiction that "the rover boys landed on the moon" or that Nazi-Commie spook-nick orbited the earth and thereby "proved" the earth a "globe." Forever end the present fiction that Russians are "orbiting earth" with littlebags of split up Adams (atoms). Will prove NO ONE has or Will EVER orbit earth as it is impossible. Earth is all there is is no doubt infinite in size, has ONE dimension, the surface. Moon is 2800 miles up as is sun, much CLOSER than Lancaster is from Montreal, Canada, the Paris of the West. I just remembered, Old Paris was called the City of Light, but it was the light that failed. Perhaps New Paris MONTREAL is the New City of Light? I hope so, negotiations are now underway for Marjory and I to go to Montreal. . . and Refute the wierd occult dark middle age superstition "earth is just a tiny speck of dust spinning around the sun" (the old 2000 year old Cainite sun worship). Perhaps before next issue of this paper June 1, I will have given Canada. . . a Chance. . . to whom much is given. . . much is expected. . . J.C.

Backward is forward or this Flat Earth is a spinning ball

Note to those who have read George Orwell's 1984. In it Winston kept claiming that 2 plus 2 were always four. . . just as sure as the world was a speck of dust whirling around the sun and that there was no God and that he, Winston, was a "Man." O'Brian, the Democratic Party Leader the Nuclear Engineer of the Society took Winston to room 101 and with Party Aids (everything found in a Mental Health Clinic, electric shock, Drugs, and a feigned sweet luv) tried to "explain" the Christian-Science or Einstien or The New Clear Way of Truth. I'll give you an example of Christian or Einstien or Harvard Scientific Thought, also known as "The Rockefeller Got It Baptist Religion." 1. The Panama Canal Zone has always belonged to the U.S. of A. It is now and has always been a part of us, created by the USA, built by the blood and sweat and tears and money of USA. Created out of worthless swamp in Columbia. It is to our best interest to keep it, it is Gate Against our Enemies. 2. US has never and does not now own the Canal, have nothing to do with the Canal, are evil Gringo Dogs for even wanting to "use their canal." We best give it back to the Clorious Noblemen who stole it from also give them our money marbles and chalk and promise to send more by return mail and flee for our lives.

Now when a person is Born Again into Double Think, also called Christian Science, he can and does Believe both stories are TRUE at THE SAME TIME!

Now in this most fantastically depressing sad and pathetic book, poor Winston never did "get it" or "got it" Or I should say he got it in the end. The ONE sole reason for Winston's trouble was in childhood in Public Schools and Church of England he was taught Earth a Ball, no God, no 10 Commandments, the Flat Earth of Bible a Myth. This corruption of the child's mind with Grease Balls and Greasy Spoon Science, made him Truly INSANE and void of all understanding. O'Brian could and DID with him as he pleased. . . why? Because Winston CONFESSED (when he said there was no God, earth a ball, and swore alligiance to the party) that he was a Mark and of the Beasts. O'Brian tried him and found him guilty. Had Winston known the Truth. . . he would have been Free, Free to keep the Commandments and serve the God of TRUTH. Jesus said the TRUTH WILL make you Free. But a buggy ball beast. . . Will Never Be Free.

LETTERS

In this new section in future will run a few letters, no names or identity revealed at all. In fact, have been meaning to say for long time. The name, address, identity of Every Person who writes us much less the Members is a Total Secret, known ONLY by me personally. I consider it my sacred Honor and Duty to never divulge the name or anything at all about who writes or joins. As a Legal Priest of the Covenant People it is my Legal and Moral Duty to keep Confidences. So no letter or comment or excerpt published will violate this precept.

Mr. Charles K. Johnson
President
International Flat Earth Research Society
Lancaster, California

Dear Mr. Johnson:

I read with great interest an editorial column appearing in the El Paso Times concerning your work and views about the shape of the earth. This letter is to express my concurrence with your position. Since May, 1973 I have grown

We are always hearing reports on the so-called "women's liberation movement" or Abortion (the right of women to kill their own children). More rights for women to take men's roles. Now they demand the "right" to fight on the front lines of wars! RIDICULOUS.

I would like to speak out for the right and decent women, who take their rightful place in life and are a credit to womanhood in this day.

First, my wonderful dear mother. My wonderful dear mother-in-law. What courageous Women, God-fearing righteous Ladies. How do I wish that all women had had the opportunity as I have had to learn from these two ladies. But no doubt there are an untold number of God-fearing Ladies, women in the world I have never even heard of.

There are some women in the news that I would like to speak highly of. Phyllis Schaffley, Anita Bryant, Mary Crisp and of course many others. I think these Women should be praised to High Heaven instead of some always trying to find fault in these good and rightful ways for women.

I will say again, GOOD WORK Phyllis Schaffley, as any woman who wants to "give up" her present and traditional position on a Pedestal, chaste upright moral men considering us to be all they love and respect, most men ready willing and able to lay down their very lives for us, protected, Cherished with tender loving kindness by our menfolk, to "give this up" . . . for freedom to be men, freedom to attract and ridicule the tender loving-kindness of our men, freedom to wallow in the muck and mire, freedom to be NOTHING but a female-male. . . is Freedom to be a Slave.

Mrs. Marjory Vaughn Johnson

not know how to answer the question without stultifying their common-sense. But the above writer thinks it can be answered, so says: "Did you ever tie a ball to a string and swing it rapidly round and round your head? If you did, YOU MUST HAVE NOTICED THE STEADY OUTWARD PULL OF THE BALL."

The "steady outward pull of the ball" clearly implies that the ball has intelligence, and knows just what to do so as to prevent its hitting the head of the operator. The "outward pull" of a ball which is fastened to the hand of the operator by a string, is clearly impossible. If the operator ceased to impel it round and round his head by the mechanical attachment and the power he exerts in swinging it round, the ball would seek its level of stability and fall to the ground. And, as this illustration is used to teach what gravitation is, and how it acts, we shall just follow the illustration to its logical issue, and see where the theory is. The illustration implies that BETWEEN ALL THE BODIES IN THE UNIVERSE, THERE IS A CONNECTING LINK, which keeps the "body" that attracts attached to the "body" that is attracted. This connecting link, in the case of the ball, is the string. Now, we could readily understand gravitation if this illustration conveyed to us by the ball and the string were a correct representation of fact. But, we very naturally ask, what is the connecting link? Of what does it consist? And of what do all the connecting links between the sun and the myriad orbs of heaven consist? Would not the "strings" get somewhat entangled? Has this connecting link ever been observed anywhere? The answer to these pertinent questions is that THERE IS NO CONNECTING LINK in existence. When the "missing link" is produced, we are prepared to admit all the gravitation theorists teach on the subject. Until then we shall continue to regard it as the myth it undoubtedly is. But we are not done with the illustration yet. The "ball and string" device sets forth that the "body" that attracts is not only connected with the "body" attracted, but that the former IS THE MOTIVE POWER OF THE LATTER - that the sun is the power which compels the earth to revolve round it, even as the motive power of the ball is the exertion of the hand of the operator. Without the connecting link the earth would fall (according to the astronomers) in a rectilinear path for ever. But what these wise men do not see, and which is a necessary part of the theory, as represented by the ball and string idea, is that the motive power also must come from the sun. Without this motive power and the connecting link, the whole of the theory falls to pieces. THERE IS NO MOTIVE POWER IN THE SUN TO CAUSE THE EARTH TO REVOLVE AROUND IT, AND THERE IS NO CONNECTING LINK BETWEEN THE SUN AND THE EARTH TO KEEP THE LATTER IN ITS POSITION, consequently the theory of universal gravitation has no existence in fact. "He who cannot reason is a fool; he who will not reason is a bigot; he who dares not reason is a coward; but he who Can and Dares to reason is a MAN.

increasingly skeptical of those persons teaching the so called globe or basketball theories of world form.

Since thousands of scientists spending billions of dollars have yet to make any material progress in adequately explaining the common cold, how can such people begin to explain such complex and ancient questions as the form of the earth or the earth's position and significance in space.

I am a vitally concerned member of the human race as such and I would like to help disprove these "mathematical scribbings" saying our home somehow looks like a bowling ball. Please send membership information regarding the International Flat Earth Research Society to:

A RUMBLE is going on in the Police-Underworld Sphere in several major cities regarding Whores. A jurisdiction dispute, can a Whore operate outside the protected Whores Union, or "protection society" and/or can one organization control all Whores in USA? Whores being killed by the Ton. Over One Ton of Whores already killed. . . as an example of terror to dissenters' in L.A. area in last few months. Uncertain just how many tons of Whores were killed in New York and east, seems to be settled now. Many tons of them are ground up and no dead bodies ever found. . . yearly.

Billy Graham and 1984. . .

This Southern Baptist in a multi-million dollar TV crusade, winning souls to Phariseism (oh yeah, the Persian-Aryan Parsee Baptized as the act of proysleting, saved the evil wicked one by the sacrifice of the innocent the shedding of innocent blood, the blood of the Lamb, their God loved to see and smell of INNOCENT BLOOD) Anyway, he Preached and ranted with the open Bible in his Hand. He has been upset and is getting wild, over people decent people and also a few christians telling him they have learned from Flat Earth Society Bible is Flat Earth Book and teaches 10 commandments and in Fact earth flat. Billy Graham on nation wide TV told millions with the Flat Earth Bible in his hand. . . "earth is just a tiny speck of dust. . . spinning around the sun," thereby exposing a main Baptist Dogma it is; The SUN is God! Don't let these subtle beasts trick you by spelling "Sun" "Son." As Moses said in Genises describing the Serpant Race of which BC is a prime example, they are more "subtle" than the average person, so can deceive. He said: There is No Heaven Above, there is no UP no Down, there is no god (but the Sun) the Bible with its 10 commandments and flat earth is just myth. There is nothing but Grease Balls existing in all the Universe, AND all of them spinning whirling gyrating and traveling at vast speeds in 3 directions at once. Next he said: Give your heart and mind over to ME Buggy Ball Graham the Great Pharisee Baptist, then you are FREE from ALL MORAL LAW, FREE FROM the BURDEN OF THE LAW, FREE to commit adultery, free to commit Sodimity, free to LIE Cheat, free to steal, free to dishonor your mother and father, FREE, FREE, FREE AT LAST.....free from that old mean God of Moses and Jesus who HATES sodomites, adulterers, Deceivers, corrupters of children, FREE, FREE at last to commit and do any damn thing your animal LUSTS lead you to do, oh Yes this CARLINA wolf in sheeps clothing tells the SHEEP, they can go at death straight UP to Heaven ABOVE and into the Pearly Gates.....The very thing he has JUST said don't exist! So spinning balls CARLINA SOUTHERN BAPTIST Billy Goat Graham gave a "free home demonstration" to the nation to what I've said for way over 10 years, the Baptist is the nearest thing existing on earth today to the Pharisee Religion as it existed in 33 A.D. When he says he "believes" the bible he means he "don't" believe it. When the Aryan Hittler and Gang, mind you NOT nordic but ARYAN, used this system was called the "Big Lie System"....reverse all truth.

I, Charles Kenneth Johnson, say to you LIAR Graham, when you publically refuted the Flat Earth Society, you rejected all TRUTH, the scales tipped against you and the God of TRUTH REJECTED YOU.....YOU are finished. Mene, Mene, Tekel, Upharsin, Finis.

Whole lot of shaking going-on. . .

A Vast Tidal Wave is moving in and on, great number of new members in last few months. Most all decent stalwart upright class of people. All among the "thinking classes" most among that "raceless race" that exists in every tribe, kindred and tongue, the restless "seekers of the Truth." What J. C. called "the salt of the earth" that very rare but absolutely essential element to any successful society. YOU are among the most important people on earth. God, Destiny, Fate, Providence; whatever you like to call it, has called you out and given you a Duty, to be a possessor of Truth, to keep your head, logic, reason and sanity....and so to be among the elect, the elite, in this the Great Tribulation in which Time, the Whole World Deceived...except you. Don't let down in any way, including your dues, so we can keep this Light the Flat Earth News Going. It is entirely possible, even likely, the Flat Earth will or HAS NOW come into power, TWA Airlines, fine upstanding decent people involved in its operation. In its very good "inflight publication" AMBASSADOR MAGAZINE, made available to all its passengers in all of its flights all over the Flat Earth, the December 77 issue was Most Outstanding. Along with all its other good articles was a double page spread with a picture on the FLAT EARTH SOCIETY! The reason the article was well and tastefully done was entirely due to the editor. He is a sane reasonable man. This airline has Very Good Navigators! You can get a ticket "across the world" instead of "around the world" with them. If you must fly, fly TWA all the Way.

THE PEOPLES ALMANAC: I highly recommend this valuable reference book. Chuck full of interesting and informative information. Put together and edited by the fabulous IRVING WALLACE and DAVID WALLECHINSKY. A small blurb in it about Flat Earth Society. I don't know whether it was Irving or David who chose the classic quote to start the book off, right on the front page, but it does tell the story on the Grease Ball Religion called "spinning ball science fiction" it is "The exact contrary of what is generally believed is often the Truth." THE AMERICAN ANTI-VIVISECTION SOCIETY and its mag called the AV. This brave and hated by "scientists" organization founded in 1883, is another voice calling attention to some Monstrous sub-human wild beasts called "medical scientists." Documents some of the hideous practices of the creeps, the slimy creatures called "scientists" in their murder and torture and sadistic tormenting of some of God's Covenant People...those who are "dumb" can't speak for themselves, the animals. Mr. Owen Hunt, President, I met and talked to him a couple of years ago in Hollywood, a dedicated man, doing Good Work as are all the members, he and they you can be sure are NOT christians because they...Lift up their voices for the Dumb... Pov. 31:8. Address: 1903 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, PA 19103. Membership with AV mag, $2 yearly, ask for free booklet, CRUEL BRUTAL FUTILE.

MIDNIGHT FLYER, I just got in the mail from "Lester Maddox Souvenirs" 1220 Mt. Paran Road N.W., Atlanta, Georgia 30327. To those who "don't remember" Maddox of Georgia stood up for his Reasonable, Normal, Decent Rights. Stood up with a Pick Ax handle to protect his "civil rights" to run his private Cafe. He LOST. Anyway this flyer says "the L.P. Album tells the full story you will never hear broadcast or see it published of what happened at his restaurant in 1964, when he was invaded by communist inspired radical agitators and the Federal Police. When Lester Maddox lost in '64 all Black and White Americans lost. Those who love America will want to hear this". IF I GO TO JAIL is the name, price $2.25. Also, "God Family and Country" $2.95 all postpaid. In this he sings plays the Harmonica and tells about the lost Lenore, the Lost Country he loved, called, "The Epitaph of the greatest nation the world has ever known." I've always liked Mr. Maddox because he stood up and WAS counted for what he believed was "right." And the 1964 civil rights bill...Did take AWAY the civil rights of USA and it was a bell that tolled for...thee. I'm going to order the albums myself, if you do, tell him you read it in the FLAT EARTH NEWS, maybe will help make a believer of him so he can see the real enemy is the Crazy Spinning Ball Hoax of the Baptist Religion that has causes the South to be... GONE WITH THE WIND

Note: Georgia is so crazed, not one member of the Flat Earth Society there. It is a "Dark State."

I hereby retract my news bulletin in July 4th 1976 issue The Cal. Politician I praised, turned out to be a "Science Fiction Fiend" and "lover of the wicked." I was wrong.

under Double-Think (as O'Brian explained to Winston in '84 Earth Flat Known and Taught at the Top, plebians only taught the spinning balls). The Elect, the Elite MUST NOT let go of Single Think (facts are facts) but at same time understand doublethink. For instance, it is KNOWN NOW as in the past, earth flat, at same time the "beasts as they call them, demand wierd occult witchcraft so it is given them...spinning balls science world, etc. To know earth flat and teach it a spinning ball is to use "Double Think." The Top Flat Earth People in power now believe it must be thus. "Two Worlds" one Human, logical, one animal, illogical.

Almost 6 thousand years of Past History for the human race, think of it, nearly 6 thousands of years of EXPERIENCE! And every year of it with every Person, myself especially, has PROVED that the disteiled Wisdom, the Perfected Law of Physics or Nature of successfully living together on this One World, the Creation Needs, Cries out for yea the whole world "groanith for," Jesus aid we MUST do it, the Book of Moses says was "WRITTEN BY THE VERY FINGER OF GOD" The answer, my Friend, is not blowing in the wind, but rather is Written in the Book of Moses in the words of Jesus, demonstrated to be True Science or Knowledge, and the way to end the groaning is The Ten Commandments. I hold up my arms with these two tablets of the LAW and say, keep it and LIVE. Come let us "reason together" why would you reject this good law and live and die in misery? Choose ye, this day.
